

Title of grant proposal (maximum 100 characters)

[Note: enter the title of your grant proposal, maximum 100 characters, here.]

Name of Applicant

[Note: enter your full name.]

Please include separately a one page CV for the applicant which must include full name, professional address, qualifications, current and previous posts, publications (max five), and current grants.

Aims (maximum 200 words)

[Note: specific aims should be outlined here.]

PLEASE NOTE

- The Trustees are unable to enter into any correspondence regarding the outcome of the application process
- Resubmitted applications will not be considered unless explicitly requested by the Trustees
- The decision of Trustees is final

Plan (maximum 400 words)

[Note: specific details of what will be done, by whom, and with what end-points should be briefly described.]

Beneficiaries (100 words)

[Note: those who stand to benefit from the funded work, including the applicant, should be listed with brief explanation of how benefit will accrue.]

Costs (100 words)

[Note: include main headings and estimated costs based on received quotations. ]

Plan for evaluation (200 words)

[Note: applicants are required to explain how they will evaluate the funded work, which should link to the aims and the beneficiaries described above. ]

- Please check this box to confirm that your supervisor / Head of Department supports your application and that no alternative internal funding is available.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

If your application for a grant is successful, we may include your name, affiliation, the title and aims of your proposal, evaluation comments, and the amount of the grant awarded on our website indefinitely. Whether your application is successful or unsuccessful we will hold details of your name, affiliation, and the title of your proposal indefinitely to track applications made to the Bioscientifica Trust for reporting / monitoring purposes and hold your application on file for 24 months after which time it will be deleted.